Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, mothers and pregnant women. They will be guided along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord’s kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God’s love and care for us. “Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves” (Psalm 126:5–6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.

United in Prayer Always,

/s/ Fr. Mark Reburiano

WHAT IS CURSILLO?

Cursillo is Spanish for “short course”. This “short course in Christianity” begins with a 3-day weekend where lay people and clergy share their experiences and perspectives on the love of God, the Christian life, and the Christian community. The teachings of Christ are discussed in a climate of joy and community. Those attending are curious, searching, discovering, and growing Christians who will have the opportunity to share their thoughts and ideas about Christianity with others. It is a time to learn and to sort out your own feelings about your faith while enjoying food, music, worship, talks and laughs.
