Last Pastor Message from Fr. Mark:
Dearest Fellow Parishioners,

“There is no place like home”. The saying is self-explanatory. You hear this when people move back to the place where their family is. I’ve heard it a lot these past months after announcing I’m going back to San Mateo this July. One may automatically assume that I’m just happy because I’m going back home. But honestly, you made me feel that St. Isabella Parish is home for me! For 8 years as Pastor, you welcomed me, cared for me, and loved me, thus making it feel like home. The line in the song entitled “The Priest” - “to be a member of every family yet belonging to none...” echoes in my ears as I reminisce memorable occasions with you as I say Goodbye.

I can list many instances where some people in their good intention to help and advise me in solving Parish issues told me “don’t think about it… just let it pass on its course,” or “just ignore it…” There were times I thought of following the advice just to make my life easy and stress-free, but I noticed that the more I followed the advice, the more I Instinctively thought of the issue and the parishioners impacted by it. Despite life’s complications, thanks sincerely for making me laugh with you, celebrate, mourn and cry with you—all these made me feel like “a member of the family” and not simply a functionary employee in the Parish. For others, it may seem too much, but when I think about it, every circumstance has its own time that may not pass again. Therefore, we don’t have the luxury of time, as life is short, so we seize the time naturally—carpe diem—and do our best in every moment as if it’s the only one. Yes, one may think it’s just me doing my duty, but honestly, I sincerely am with you in every circumstance: your joys, celebrations, sadness, trials, anxieties, pains, tribulations, etc., since you are family to me. Just as in every family, there are failures, I sincerely apologize for my shortcomings that may have offended you. I will miss you, as there’s no place like home.

My heartfelt THANKS! May my Goodbye only mean “God be with you and God bless us all!”
P.S.: if you happen to be in San Mateo, I will be glad and honored to see you at St. Gregory Parish. My email address is: vreburiano235@yahoo.com.

- Father Mark Reburiano

From Fr. Samuel:
Dear God’s People, friends never say goodbye to each other. Because deep inside, their hearts, they’ll be in touch forever! Words can never express my sorrow as I say goodbye today! Your teachings will always light up the ways that lead me to a better future! I will surely miss you. Forever me for any wrongs that I may have committed. I ask for your blessings. I’ll miss you! May God bless you! Good bye

- Fr. Samuel Musiimenta (“Fr. Ice Cream”).

THANK YOU FR. MARK and FR. SAMUEL
