From the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

FAITH AND HOPE

Faith and hope are closely united in today's readings. The Israelites knew when the Passover was coming, and so were not in fear, but had faith and courage, "putting into effect with one accord the divine institution." In this we can see a foretelling of the Eucharist that we celebrate according to Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me."

We see that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob died in faith, although they did not see fulfillment of the promise. We live in hope that our faith will be fulfilled every time we celebrate this sacrament. We too are not to be afraid, but to have hope that our faith will be fulfilled in the coming of Christ.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This Thursday's solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was born in the Eastern Church. It is a gift from the ancient Church of Jerusalem, a commemoration of the death of Mary, and a feast charged with a deep sense of the Resurrection. Mary, the first disciple, is the first to share fully in Christ's victory over death. In the tradition of the East, August 15 is the "Dormition of the Theotokos," or the "Falling Asleep of the God-bearer." There is no shadow of death or gloom in the theology, since this is seen as a transformation of Mary's life into a heavenly and immortal existence. There is a sense in the tradition that she who made earth heavenly and exalted the human race by her faithfulness is glorified today.

A persistent legend among Orthodox Christians tells how all the disciples, except Thomas, who was preaching in India, were present at Mary's death and burial, and sat by the tomb for three days. On the third day, Thomas saw Mary's body rising to heaven. She greeted him as "my friend," and he was escorted by angels to proclaim her assumption to the others, who then realized her tomb was empty. Thus Thomas, the one who expressed doubt at the resurrection of Christ, received a gift from Mary: the chance to proclaim resurrection faith to the disciples.

Blessed Mother Rosary Group

Including families, AMS clergy serve approximately 1.8 million Catholics. While salaries of Catholic military chaplains are paid by the U.S. Government, the AMS does not receive any funding from the government for program and administrative costs.

Join the Archdiocesan Novena for Life

On July 31, Archbishop Cordileone invited all Catholics to join in a Novena to ask the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe—patroness of unborn children—to defeat California State Senate Bill 24 (SB24), which mandates health centers at all state colleges and universities in California provide “abortion by medication techniques”. The Novena began on August 3, but can be joined anytime. On August 11, the Archbishop will celebrate Mass at 9:00 am in St. Mary’s Cathedral to conclude the Novena. The Archbishop urges Catholics to pray, but also to contact their lawmakers to express their opposition to SB 24.

Marin Catholic Sophomore needs Bone Marrow Donors

Earlier this year, Marin Catholic Sophomore Daniel Rose was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). After going through multiple treatments over the past several months, Daniel’s oncology team believes a bone marrow transplant is needed to cure his leukemia. They are racing against time to preserve his hard-fought remission.

Daniel’s family urges people to join a registry to see if you could be the match Daniel needs. To register, go to: <https://dkmsgetinvolved.org/eligibility>, to request a home cheek swab kit mailed to you ASAP.

You may also share the link above with friends and family. Every person who signs up is a potential match.
