From the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
THE MASTER STORYTELLER

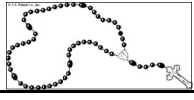

In today's Gospel, Jesus is presented to us as the master storyteller. He loved to use parables as a tool for comparing one thing to something else. In most of his parables, Jesus revealed who God is by comparing God's essence or actions with something familiar to his listeners. In the parable of the mustard seed, Jesus proclaims a wonderful and undeniable truth. His small band of disciples, as insignificant as they may have felt, would one day produce a mighty kingdom whose growth was initiated by God. The seeds of this kingdom were planted by God and it is God who will harvest the fruit brought forth from those seeds. The extent of the growth of God's kingdom cannot be predicted. We must trust the work of the Master's hand as we, the mustard plant, grow and grow.

Grow where you are planted. Become what we receive: the Body of Christ

United in Prayer Always,
/s/ Fr. Mark Reburiano

Two Parish families have donated the linear lighting at our Crucifix.

The arrow-shaped design points to "Sursum Corda" (Lift Up Your Hearts). This design is repeated on our altar, preside's chair, side clergy chairs, ambo, commentator stand and baptismal font. Our parish founder, Father Edward Dingberg, in 1961, selected what he thought to be the most beautiful crucifix possible for our church. We can all be happy he did so and also be happy to see it illuminated.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, embracing a new vision and new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the acts of giving from our abundance and attending to the needs of the poor open us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Parishioners are encouraged to spend time in the Church with the Blessed Sacrament on the First Friday of each month.

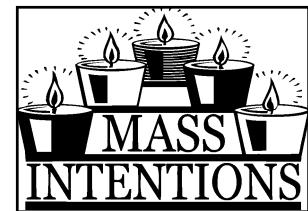

Can you spare an hour to be with Jesus in the Eucharist?

to attend their annual Novena to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, from July 8th to the 16th, at 7:30 pm, each evening in the Monastery Chapel.

This year's Novena will be conducted by Rev. Jose Luis Ferroni, OCD, and Rev. David Costello, OCD, who are both Parochial Vicars of the Carmelite Parish of Santa Cruz, in Tucson, AZ. We are so happy to have Fathers Jose Luis and David with us for this Novena, as they are excellent homilists, with a wonderful knowledge of our Carmelite Spirituality and Sacred Scripture, and a very special love of the Lady of Mt. Carmel. We hope you will join us for these nine days of prayer and reflection.
