From the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
ASKING FOR HELP

The Beatitudes praise the poor in spirit. One characteristic of those who are poor in spirit is their ability to ask for help; they know when others can provide what they lack. Today's readings encourage us to practice poverty in spirit by asking God for what we need. What could be more natural than to ask God for good things? God is, after all, the inventor of goodness and the giver of all good things.

Asking God for help puts us in conversation with God. These conversations take many forms. The reading from Genesis shows Abraham bantering with God like a skilled negotiator, while Saint Paul's letter to the Colossians praises God for answering us even when we don't deserve it. In Saint Luke's Gospel, Jesus not only gives us words to use in our conversations with God (the Our Father), but also promises that God always listens to our prayers.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan

From Catholic Charities:

Providing critically important legal immigration services is how we live our Mission at Catholic Charities. Our Mission is rooted in our faith traditions of charity and justice. We have combined our San Francisco and San Mateo programs into a single division of legal immigration services at Catholic Charities, which will allow us to serve even more clients.

We stand in solidarity with immigrants during these alarming and challenging times, and will continue to pray for their safety, provide them with assistance, advocate for their rights, and treat them with compassion, respect and dignity.

For questions or legal assistance, please contact Sara Castello, Catholic Charities General Counsel and Managing Attorney for Immigration Services at:

Marin Catholic Sophomore needs Bone Marrow Donors

Earlier this year, Marin Catholic Sophomore Daniel Rose was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). After going through multiple treatments over the past several months, Daniel's oncology team believes a bone marrow transplant is needed to cure his leukemia. They are racing against time to preserve his hard-fought remission.

Daniel's family urges people to join a registry to see if you could be the match Daniel needs. To register, go to: <https://dkmsgetinvolved.org/eligibility>, to request a home cheek swab kit mailed to you ASAP.

You may also share the link above with friends and family. Every person who signs up is a potential match.

THANK YOU!
