A Message from Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners of St. Isabella Church,

Starting July 5th, St. Isabella will begin Masses outdoors, Sundays only, 9:00 am and 11:30 am, on the school yard grounds. Parishioners are asked to bring their own masks, hand sanitizers and chairs. Dress according to weather: sunscreen, hats, etc. If there is rain on any Sunday morning, Mass will be cancelled. All parishioners who attend will be asked to sign a Consent Form.

The Church building remains closed until Marin County allows us to re-enter.

Many parishioners miss seeing each other as one of the blessings parishes offer is community. There is a time for everything, one day this too will pass.

I know this is a difficult time for everyone, but together we will come through this stronger and better.

Many blessings to all.

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O' Sullivan

During this time of the Covid-19 virus and its rapidly changing situation, St. Isabella's asks parishioners to strictly observe the following precautions:

- 1) When ill, remain at home, and watch TV Mass on Sunday mornings, (see box in next column).
- 2) ALL Ministers should excuse themselves if they feel any hint of a cold or flu.
- 3) Suspension of the Cup at Communion and the Holy Water at the doors until further notice.
- 4) Wash your hands often and for at least 20 seconds with soap and water.
- 5) "Social distancing" of at least 6 feet between persons.

NOTE: All church events, the public Mass schedule, and confessions have been canceled, by directive of Archbishop Cordileone. This is a changing situation—When possible, updates of our current situation will be posted on our website.

We are saddened to announce the unexpected death of Fr. Ken Westray, former pastor of St. Isabella's Church, and a beloved priest in the San Francisco Archdiocese.

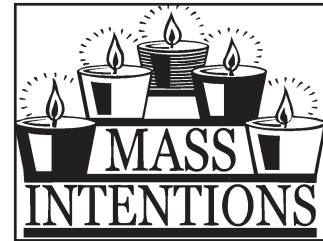

Fr. Ken passed away on June 24, 2020 in the Rectory of St. Vincent de Paul Church, where he served as pastor after St. Isabella's.

Please offer a prayer for the repose of his soul.

May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.
