Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 20-1-16A

This is another relevant parable for our time. We think fairness should be the same for everyone. You work the same hours, therefore equal pay. I am an apprentice I should not make the same pay as a worker of ten years. Biblically has a different outlook. God is generous so you agreed to work eight hours and paid, he worked one hour, agreed to pay him eight hours work, that's my decision and not yours. You agreed to your payment. Be satisfied.

Catholic School (Part 1 of 2)

Catholic Schools are doing extremely well considering their circumstances. There is a saying "Be like willow trees and bend" and certainly administrators and teachers have done this. Reopening schools should be carefully managed and not rushed. Safety of everyone is the only reason that matters. School lives matter. With no preparation, Catholic Schools had to go to virtual learning, but it is no substitute for instruction within classrooms. Catholic Schools come together as a Faith Community and that is surely missed by all.

International News

A Benedictine Abbess in Germany has been charged with aiding illegal immigrants on the property. She has refused to pay the fine and will be sent to jail. To the court, she stated, "I acted out of a Christian spirit, to give help to people in need, it is not a crime, at least not in this monastery." The Vatican supports her.
