Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 21 : 28 - 32

Do what you say, say what you do is the common sense of human reasoning and responsibility. Once people do not live by their word, all trust with them vanishes. The same is true with spirituality. I love you, I forgive you, I serve you, I am honest with you, or it is just cheap words living a delusional life.

Catholic School (Part 2 of 2)

70% of parents wish to have their children return to schools. Concerns with children with compromised immune systems is a parental decision. Safety is paramount. How many people can be in a bathroom, or walk the school halls, in the classroom, which doors you enter, temperature checks, etc. It will be a challenging year. Congratulations to St. Isabella School on a great job well done.

Church Reopening

The parish is acquiring new cleaners. Hopefully this week, they can do the deep cleaning, then St. Isabella Church can reopen. Check the parish website for info, www.stisabellaparish.org.

Saint Clare of Assisi, Italy

Born in Assisi to a noble family, impressed by a sermon Saint Francis gave 1212, she joined the Benedictines. She later founded her own community known as the Poor Clares, nuns who live a cloistered life. She is Patron Saint of eye diseases.

Did you know

The largest spectator sport present to the contest is cycling - Tour de France. 15 million people in cities, and towns stand to see cyclists pass by on their way to Paris.

Parish Comment

Masks have many symbols and themes that we wear but to now I have not seen any religious masks.

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan
