Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 21 : 1 - 14

It seems this man is determined to have his wedding feast for his son filled to capacity and he will go to any lengths to make sure this happens. Those who should be there and fail to do so will be replaced by strangers, though they have nothing done whatever to deserve being invited to the banquet. They certainly have done nothing for the king that he would have to invite them. But God is a generous God who is inviting.

Parish News

First Holy Communion, St. Isabella's students made on October 3, 2020. Usually they would be 2nd graders. But due to the pandemic shutdown, this year they are 3rd graders. Hope to see you at Sunday Masses which is the point of making 1st Holy Communion.

Congratulations to the First Holy Communicants of St. Isabella's PSR, Saturday, October 10, 2020.

The Rectory in the next few weeks will be painting and re-carpeting the front 3 rooms (front office, visiting room and PSR room). The entrance hall way and restroom will also be done.

Church Reopening

The parish is getting the Church building deep cleaning before reopening for services. The cleaner is scheduling the works need to be completed. Check the parish website for updates.

PSR

Parish School of Religion (PSR) opens October 31st with virtual classes for now. The new staff for PSR are: Theresa Bruton, Mary McCaffrey, Diane Vattuone. I am very grateful to all our volunteer teachers.

Did you know?

80% of smog pollution comes from travel pollutants.

Vatican News

There are rumors 93 year old Pope Benedict XVI is having health issues and is looking very frail. He has a painful skin infection and his voice is barely audible. He wishes to be buried under St. Peter's Basilica where many Popes' remains lie.

National News

New York Congresswoman Alexandria Cortez questions why St. Damien of Molokai has a statue in the U.S. Capitol. She said, he is not Hawaiian and is not American. St. Damien spent 16 years in Molokai. He succumbed to leprosy and is a hero to the Hawaiian people.

Words for Thought

Black Lives Matter (Part 2 of 3)

The facts are black lives are dying twice as much as other lives, live in poverty, more unemployed, sub-standard schools, inadequate housing, poor health care and broken families. This is the condition of their existence . It also does not help they live in neighborhoods filled with violence and drugs. Who is to blame is certainly a fair question. But the more important question is how can society help them to reach their fulfillment more fully and easily.

The noblest art is that of make others happy

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan
