Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 22 : 15 - 21

Talk about being outsmarted by Jesus, not once, not twice, but three times in this story. When Jesus goes on the offensive he leaves them in the dust literally. They look the foolish hypocrites they are, and no further response is heard from them.

PSR

Parish School of Religion (PSR) is looking for a 4th grade teacher. Please contact Theresa Bruton (email therese@stisabellasparish.org) or call Fr. O' 415-479-1560 if you are interested.

Retreats

Few people take time to take retreats so what is a retreat? It is a space to nurture your soul and mind. Many monasteries and convents are involved in this ministry, sometimes behind spectacular scenery. To find peace is the ultimate prize. There are many kinds of retreats:

1. Private retreats no one bothers you. You are left alone. (This is my favorite form of retreat.)
2. Communal retreats. A lot of sharing and conversing. St. Isabella's PYC teens every year does this retreat.
3. Instructional retreats where a priest or a sister leads by teachings or spirituality of various saints, theologies, etc.
4. A spiritual director who meets with you once or twice a day.
5. Small group (10-15) who completely run their own retreat.

That's life: Things people forget

1. Passport to airports
2. Cell-phone, where did I leave it
3. Why did I go into this room
4. Grocery list
5. Wife's birthday

Pope Francis

Pope Francis has a new encyclical coming out 10/04/2020 on fraternity and social friendship. The title of the encyclical is Fratelli Tutti (Brothers All). The title is not meant to exclude women, everyone is included. It happens to be one of Pope Francis favorite Italian quotations.

Words for Thought

Black Lives Matter (Part 3 of 3)

When any group of people in society are hindered by prejudice and racism, then the common good of equality and justice is undermined; and the nation fails in its constitutional ideals. I look at my life and I cannot explain to myself how I have never had a black friend in 66 years of living life. I guess I have only lived in white communities. It is a call of our faith that whether by race, language, or culture, we may differ, yet we are all brothers and sisters. We have a universal call as human beings to unite and befriend each other.

"The finest eloquence is that which gets things done."

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan
