Solemnity of Christ the King

John 18 : 33 - 37

A king in the ancient world was the highest authority of the land. He made the laws and all owed allegiance to him. Therefore, the question put to Jesus, “Are you a King” is one of life or death. No king will stand for an adversary to his throne.

Pope Francis

Climate Change Conference in Glasgow, Scotland early November, Pope Francis called on world leaders to demonstrate political will and not defer action on climate change. The most magical in history was the day of creation 4.6 billion years ago. If we do not care for creation, Mother Nature will not care for us.

Universal Church

The Vatican has united Juneau and Anchorage into one Archdiocese now called the Archdiocese of Anchorage - Juneau and installed Archbishop Bellisario as its first Archbishop.

Adolfo Nicolás Pachón, S.J. (Jesuit superior), R.I.P. (Part 2 of 3)

The time we now spend on virtual technologies can have negative effects on our being.

1. It can lead to dehumanizing each other.
2. We can lose a sense of self, family, our culture, religion, even compassion for the suffering of others.

Education is to have depth of thought, to know what is real from fantasy, to encounter that which is deepest changes the person. Technology cannot do that for us.

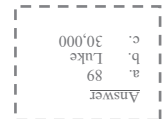

Abortion

European Parliament has voted that abortion as essential health care. The Vatican immediately responded stating “We have never agreed that abortion is a human right. The intentional killing of innocent life in the womb cannot be considered health care or diabolically cast as a human right.”

Walking the Camino de Santiago de Compostela, Spain

It is a 500-mile walk from St. Jean-Pied-de-Port, France to Santiago, Spain. These walks have been happening over a 1,000 years where relics of Saint James are kept. 200,000 people take on this walk each year. It takes about seven weeks to complete. Pilgrim hostels available every 15 miles, hanging boots from buildings showing this is a hostel. People can get injured, blisters which will end your journey. If you are interested in this journey, contact Fr. O’ Travel Agent, I will give you a map and away you go! - Oh Good Luck.

Parish Story

At the school Halloween Party, I brought down one of my expensive collectable walking sticks. Two ten year old girls had $2 walking sticks (hard paper) with witches head on the stick. I said to them, I will trade my antique silver embroiled 100 year old stick for your paper witch stick. They adamantly would not consider the exchange. An antique is no match to an ugly witch with blazing red eyes on a so-called stick (paper) at Halloween.

“It is not how much we have,
but how much we enjoy,
that makes happiness.”

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O’Sullivan
