Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 6 : 27 - 38

Jesus practiced what he preached as the Garden of Gethsemane portrays; Peter, put your sword aside. Not all of Christian history has matched these words, for as we all know too many times in the name of God, we have marched to senseless wars, leaving nothing but destruction and despair behind us.

Love your enemy

Pope Francis

When Prayer is alive, Faith is deep.

Vatican

The Vatican has changed Canon Law for approving liturgical translations. Rather than a bishop deciding adaptations, it must now go to Bishop Conferences for liturgical adaptations. More bishops will be involved in confirming changes to the liturgy.

The Synod

It will incorporate many voices especially women voices, young adults and absentees. Women want to have their voices heard which is the purpose of this Synod. Young adults are pointing to they want to be more listened too and taken more seriously. There is a saying, "Once a Catholic, always a Catholic." Absentees are not lost to the Church. Its roots remain very strong in their spirit.

Did you know?

$90 billion betting on sports in the U.S., 2021.

Ukraine

The Catholic Church in Ukraine is worried, anticipating a Russian invasion and how will Russia treat the Church. They expect Russia will interfere in religious rights. They also expect Catholic clergy will be forced to accept Russian citizenship to be able to minister, and Russian eyes will monitor their activities.

National News

It is common today to hear "Black Lives Matter" to the extent that their voice be heard this is a good thing. But the Gospel does not restrict itself to one mantra. The Gospel says, "All lives matter, our enemies and those who dislike us."

Catholic Sprouts

An app to plant seeds of faith in young people. It teaches morality, sacraments, theology, feast days, saints, scriptures etc. Worth checking out.

"Inspect what you expect."

Archdiocesan Annual Appeal Update

Late last November, we updated the Parish on amounts still due for the 2020 and 2021 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. For the two years, St Isabella still had an outstanding balance of $79,538 due. Our Parish community responded very generously and we have received donations totaling $77,913, which is just $1,625 short of full payment.

Your Parish Finance Committee met on January 28th and authorized final payment of the AAA for 2020 and 2021 out of Parish reserves. We are now fully paid up on AAA... Thank You! Looking forward, we are currently in discussions with the Archdiocese on the 2022 AAA and will be updating the Parish in the coming weeks.

Thank you for your continued support and commitment to St Isabella Parish.
