Third Sunday of Easter

John 21 : 1 – 19

It would seem from the appearances stories that Christ definitely picked out Peter more times than anyone else. He questioned him more directly, challenged his qualities and leadership, even his friendship. By all standards, Peter was not living up to his call. But it was also clear, Peter was not deserting, as weak as he was then in his life, he was still following. Later the flock will follow Peter.

Pope Francis

“We cannot become great in Christian eyes if we keep succumbing to human failings.”

Vatican Trivia

Why is the Pieta Michelangelo’s only signed sculpture?

He heard another artist was claiming this work so he sneaked into St. Peter’s Basilica at night and chiseled his name on the marbled stone.

Missionaries of Charity

Saint Theresa of Calcutta community of sisters have elected a new Superior General of the order. Sister Joseph 68 years. She joined the order at the age of 20. She is the 3rd Superior General since Mother Theresa died.

Catechesis

Are Catholics the only Christians who use crucifixes?

Generally yes. Protestants use a plain cross with no corpus on it. Catholics are reminded of Christ passion and our redemption. Processional crosses at Mass or crosses in the church always have the corpus on the cross.

Ukraine

Many of the refugees fleeing in tears have no idea where their lives are going next. Imagine what it must be like not having the necessities of life—no food, no water, no showers, no cell phone, no toilettes, no blankets, no tents, language barriers, no medications. The refugees arrive in shock in Poland etc. Many refugees are women stressed about having left their men behind. Watching the destruction of Ukraine’s beautiful cities and humanitarian crisis leaves no doubt in my mind Putin is no different than Hitler. They both are satanic.

Did you know?

Pigeons were one of first animals domesticated by humans over 5,000 years ago. The Irish have pigeon races to France and back.

Parish News

The restroom by the parking lot is now remodeled, and ready to use. The other restroom is presently being worked on.
