Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 9 : 51 – 62

It's a rare question we ask of people, who do you think I am! Yet Jesus wanted to know, so he asked the question. If we believe in him as more than man, then he will make a difference in way we live. Today's Gospel follows last week on knowing. Jesus heads to Jerusalem against all advice because he is faithful to his calling. Here in Jerusalem will the glory of the divine being be revealed in his resurrection.

Following Jesus

Pope Francis

We are called to live the political encounters of our times in a fraternal way to those who least agree with us.

Pope Francis is to visit Canada July 24th—29th. He will visit indigenous people and address the participation of the Catholic Church in the state-run residential schools during the period of colonization.

Caritas

Caritas has aided the people of Ukraine by donating 1.2 million to charitable organizations.

Interesting Facts

74% of priests being ordained in 2022 were altar servers.

The Mass (Part 3 of 6)

Prior to Vatican II, the Eucharist focused on God's transcendence. Mystery, awe and reverence to the Son of God present to us. Vatican II looked to his Immanence. Jesus humanity and presence in the Church. In these two ways the Church recognizes Jesus presence in the Eucharist. "True God and True Man."

Did you know?

You cannot rent a car until you are 26 years of age.

Knights of Columbus

They have not forgotten the people of Ukraine. There are 2,000 Knights in Ukraine and despite the shock of Russia's invasion, they have been bringing aid to millions of Ukrainian people displaced by the war; food, medicine, essential supplies, etc. They also committed $8 million to Ukrainian aid. Putin has caused a humanitarian crisis but the Knights are there for those in need.

Parish News

Last week at St. Isabella School Summer Camp, I said to an 8 years old boy, "Okay, no more games, time to do mathematics." With a stern parental eye, he said to me, "There is no mathematics in Summer Camp."

"Your deeds are your monuments"
