Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12 : 13 - 21

A Church is made up of three parts:

- A. Faith, Beliefs, Doctrine, Morals
- B. Liturgy, Sacraments, Prayer
- C. Community, Socials, Pastoral Works.

All three are required to be churched. To leave one out = 33% which makes us less churched.

Pope Francis

Pope Francis met with Catholic media and told them they must report truth and correct information always. You are not in the fake news business. Accurate information is a human right.

Pope Francis has made the last week of September, World Migrants and Refugees Week. A week of prayer for those fleeing their lands because of wars, hunger or persecutions.

Vatican Trivia

Any industries in the Vatican?

Only two. The making of mosaics and the issuing of postage stamps. That's it.

Why are Priests not more involved in politics?

First the Church does not allow them to do so though of course they can speak their minds. Priests are not allowed to choose worldly affairs over their supernatural calling.

Catholic Morals to Gambling (Part 3 of 3)

No money should be spent on gambling if it deprives another of what is due to them, the wife, the family. Many gamblers are addicted to gambling, therefore the moral to the good can never be achieved as most bets are loser bets. Many for this reason alone to gamble heavily is wasteful.

Annulments (Part 2 of 2)

The Church has theological laws for a valid marriage. Example, marriage is permanent. If one getting married did not believe in that, marriage is invalid. Marriage is open to children, not believe in this, marriage is invalid when it reaches the Tribunal. Immaturity can lead to an annulment. God put marriage into our nature. The relationship is a life long process to bring grace into it, or sin. The Church stands to the validity of a valid marriage.

Family & Politics

The conventional wisdom is never discuss religion or politics in social gatherings. But who abides by that advise. These are some of the greatest discussions around dinner tables. The important rule is no matter how intense these discussion become, we do not place politics above family.

"As from the Acorn comes the Oak." ... Vatican II

Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan

SVDP – The second collection this weekend is for St. Vincent de Paul Conference. Housing costs and rents are increasing in our area. This is especially hard for our neighbors who are living on the edge, can barely afford food and utilities, and are at risk of becoming homeless. In the past 3 months, the St. Isabella St. Vincent de Paul Conference has helped 23 people with rent, 5 people with PG&E and provided 14 Safeway food vouchers for groceries. Please help us help your neighbors in need.

Welcome to our Faith family, baptized at St. Isabella
