Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 19 : 1 - 10

It is one thing to be wealthy and pay taxes but it is another thing in the ancient world to be poor and yet pay taxes. It is the reason why tax collectors were despised. Yet Jesus did not hate Zacchaeus. He befriended him and brought him into his company of friends. This is a whole new world for Zacchaeus. In his experience of being accepted and loved, he changed his life.

Pope Francis

“With great shame I acknowledge the Catholic Church at times used its action and decisions contrary to Christ and the Gospel, instead they thirsted for power and status.”

The Popes

(Historically have spoken) “Poverty is good, Chastity is greater, but Obedience is greatest of all.”

Catechesis

Is it wrong to think of Heaven as an extension of earthly pleasure? i.e. At a funeral, father said, “Uncle Bob has gone to the great golf course in the skies.” We need images but I would presume Heaven is far far greater than a golf course, and surely better than the joys of a golf course.

Happy Parishes (Part 2 of 2)

Seven paths that lead to a joyful church: (continued from last week)

5. Respect all parishioners. Where everyone counts, everyone matters even those who get under our skin. We all have a voice that deserves to be listened to.
6. No one is indispensable in parish. Better, what would they do without me. There are no Kings or Queens in parish life. All of us are in this together to the Glory of God and blessings on our community.

Last Supper

Andy Warhol painting of the last supper is quite theological revealing. It will upset some Catholics as irreverent and others as challenging our Faith. Sitting at the table is not the twelve apostles but the misfits of society as some Christians think. The homosexual, prostitute, criminal, thief, molester, slanderer, the bully, the uncivilized, and so on. Through this work of art, what he is saying to us? Art has its own language.

Did you know?

There are more people who die from overdose than any other criminal deaths combined.

Parish Life

Parishes to open up all ministries and return to normalcy, St. Isabella will begin with liturgies. Boys and girls who wish to be Altar Servers, contact Fr. O'. Also, need to add more Commentators, contact Lynn Young.

*“I would rather teach a man to fish,
than to give a man a fish to eat.”

St. Vincent de Paul provides assistance with rent, food and utilities to families in our neighborhood. Please help us help your neighbors in need.
