Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 20 : 27 - 38

No human can talk to us about the assurance of an afterlife. For us, it is the splendid hope given to us not by any human being but on the word made flesh and the power of God. As Christians, our hope of Resurrection is not based on man’s word, but is founded on the Son of God’s Incarnation and his Resurrection, thereby a living historical event.

Pope Francis

Christ asks us to separate ourselves from the world in order to experience transcendence. We are in this world but not of this world. We are born to eternal life.

Vatican

A group of U.S. Bishops have asked the Vatican to add a feast day to honor the marriage of Mary & Joseph. The Bishops stated since sacramental marriage is being rejected in the U.S., the Bishops felt this would be a good way to hold up the union of Mary and Joseph as a model for all spouses to emulate. The Vatican declined this request stating there are no plans to add to the universal liturgical calendar at this time.

Franciscan

In 1269 the Franciscans come to Ireland to the town of Clomel and have had a continued presence there. The Order recently announced they will be closing their doors in 2023 due to a lack of vocations.

Ireland

For the first time in 400 years, Catholic outnumber Protestants in Northern Ireland. (If you can’t beat them, out-number them.)

Netherlands

Four out of five parishes in Holland are in financial trouble. Which means imminent closers. Don’t think it will not happen here? Some feel the Church should not make decisions on closing parishes purely on business concerns. Parishes have more value to people than the need of money.

Church Facts

In 1970 Catholic weddings in the U.S. were 426,309. Today, the number is less than 100,000 Catholic weddings in the Church.

Parish Comment

I am amazed when I hear some priests do not want to speak out against abortion on Sundays because it might offend some people. My goodness this is Catholic property. If we cannot speak our truths on Catholic grounds, then we don’t believe in them (that simple).
