Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 3 : 20 - 35

Many believe Satan is not such a bad fellow, wears a human smile on his face. But Satan remains the greatest liar and the philosopher of death. This greatest enticement is “Do as you choose, who is to stop you even if you are evil.” It is therefore wise to practice a spiritual mind, self examination daily, vigilance for truth, time for prayer, and always desire to repent.

Pope Francis

Peace is a human right not a human option. It is can take away peace from the masses, denying them a God given right to happiness.

too sad that throughout history, individuals

Christian Persecutions in Nigeria

1. 104 million Christians in Nigeria, persecuted
2. 52,000 murdered since 2009
3. 18,000 churches destroyed
4. 2,200 schools destroyed
5. 47% increase of food shortages

The reasonable question to be asked, “Why are we supporting with finance these terror governments.”
Being a Christian is not a crime.

Youth Groups (Part 1 of 2)

Many parishes no longer have youth groups. Many teenagers find their needs meet beyond church groups. A question was asked of teenagers, “Do you believe you were created by God?” 50% said no. They were create by luck. Without a solid foundation of faith coming from the family, young people are less likely to be engaged with faith. Teenagers want real relationships with adults. Real conversations, listening to them without judging them. They need to know they are loved.

Strive not to be a success, but rather to be of value.

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O’Sullivan
