Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 6 : 39 - 45

In order to be a kind person, you have to have kindness. In order to be a good person, you have to be good. In order to be a humble person, you have to have humility. In order to be a loving person, you need to be a loving person. In order to be, you have to be it. If it is not in you, it is not coming out of you.

Catholic Social Doctrine

Which Catholic social doctrine is considered the most important teaching? By far the Family and what the Church teaches regarding social issues facing families. i.e. Broken marriage, abortion, gender identity issues, assisted suicide, surrogacy and embryo rights, domestic violence, homosexuality, trafficking, sexual abuse, stem cells, and much more. Easily unparalleled, the role of Family in Catholic doctrine dominates.

Did You Know?

14 million Syrians have been displaced during the Assad regime. 90% of Syrians live in poverty.

Illness

Being sick, one can choose to be sorry, depressed, even angry, or it can be a powerful time for personal spiritual reflection, prayer and to let God make use of this with oneself. Most human suffering is about inconvenience. One is not dying. Usually people have more time for you when sick than when healthy. You never know who is popping through the door, with so much love, good will and smiles. Illness can be a place where the restoration of the soul begins. Sickness too can be a blessing.

Parish Event

MIAC St. Patrick's Day Family Potluck, today March 2nd, 4PM to 9PM, at the Parish Hall.

If you leave out justice, you will find yourself in the end a cruel and treacherous person.

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan
