Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 21 : 5 - 19

When Luke was writing his Gospel, the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem has already taken place. Christ's words have come true. When Christ was crucified, it was to wipe him off of future history, but he rose and remains. The temple never rose again after its destruction. It remains in ashes whereas Christ is alive today, tomorrow, and forever.

Why Catholic School

It is the belief in the mission of Catholic Schools to proclaim that Jesus Christ is the way, truth and the life. There are many success stories of Catholic Schools and we are thankful for all our dedicated principals, teachers, parent groups and priests, who believe in the mission. Catholic Schools are safe with prayer and faith added to its curriculum. God bless all our Catholic Schools dedicated to making their students good citizens, capable of thinking critically.

Comment

A man said, why pray when my prayer is never answered. A theologian response was, your prayer has been answered and the answer is no. Prayer is not to conform God to our will, but to conform our will to his. As in other parts of living life, there are times no is the best answer as parents, teachers, coaches, judges saying no to us: This is not good, so no for your own good.

Vocations (Part 2 of 2)

We also started retreats for high school aged boys and public school boys whose families sometimes feel overlooked and encouraged those to get involved in parish ministries so they gain some experience of priestly life. Forming vocation committees in parish helps as the parish is involved in promoting vocations. Young people are hungry for depth and meaning. Some can be drawn to the beauty, truth, and goodness found in our Catholic tradition. They want to be a part of something bigger than themselves.

Parish Story

A couple go into a restaurant for lunch at 2:15 p.m. Ordered linguini with clams. Usually a plate is roughly 15 clams. He got 30 clams. How does that happen. Restaurant is closing for lunch time. All clams will be used up, whatever is left in the kitchen. So the maxim is "Dine late, more clams on the plate."

Parish News

Month of November is liturgically remembrance in prayers the souls of our loved ones. Each Saturday and Sunday at our Mass, we will pray a decade of the Rosary to honor them.
